At this time, Mayor Carlin read the following for the record regarding the 4th Grade Travel Basketball Team:

Mayor Carlin noted this is the first 4th Grade Travel Basketball Team in Burlington Township to win a championship.

Mayor Carlin commented to the team that your coach didn't realize how good you were until the Seneca game which left him speechless. His quote was he was truly amazed how quickly the boys developed chemistry with each other. How well they moved the ball and how aggressive they were on the defense.

April 12, 2016

He remembers specifically: Jack Heil's three point shot, Baron Davis's alluding defenders with his head up, Aaron Ferguson's dominating performance against Seneca, Jackson Harbough catching the ball on the run and finishing the lay-up, Isiah N'Diaye hustling and being aggressive on defense, Tatum Hayes playing starter against Seneca and Moorestown and Will Felder with his relentless and pure energy, hustle, rebounding and scoring that change the games.

Mayor Carlin invited Coach Felder up to say a few words and help hand out the Certificates of Recognition.
