Mayor Carlin read the following for the record:

This is the Falcons second trip to the Township Council to pick up certificates.

The Falcons finished the season with a record of 8-1-1 for 25 points to finish as co-champions with the Harrison SC Edge. The Strikers finished with 26 goals for and 3 goals against. The Falcons recorded 5 shutouts.

Much like the Boys' squad, the Falcons season came down to the final weekend of the season. The job became much more difficult because the Girls had to play that final game with 5 players missing due to injury and other obligations. Despite everything working against them, the girls earned a hard fought 1-1 draw to clinch a share of the conference championship.

For their outstanding efforts this Fall, the girls have been placed two conferences up for the Spring.

At this time, Mayor Carlin called on Councilman Schoenborn and Coach Senni to help with the certificates. He then called on each member of the team to come forward and receive their certificate.
